Religious Education: What are we doing? Where are we going?

The tenth South West SACREs Conference will take place at the ever-popular Dillington House. We have a superb variety of workshops on offer and are delighted that Dr Joyce Miller, a commissioner with the RE Council will provide a keynote address. Joyce Miller is a member of the Commission on Religious Education which began its work in November 2016. She will identify some of the issues the Commission faces and will offer some personal reflections on ways forward. We also have a presentation from Dr Ian Jamison, Head of Education and Training at the Tony Blair Faith Foundation on the work of the foundation.

Workshops include:

- Dr Ian Jamison: A case study from the work of the foundation.
- Liz Payne-Ahmadi: The importance of bringing humanism to life with confidence in the school curriculum
- David Rees: 'Crossing the Bridges' A project from Poole SACRE aimed at engaging more fully with local faith communities.
- Pauline Dodds: Introduction to the Understanding Christianity project
- Kathryn Taylor: 'Godly Play, a Time for Reflection?'
- Ed Pawson: Learn teach lead RE in the region
