Summary of Meetings This Year

15 Dec 2011 Meeting at St Barnabas Catholic Cathedral, with presentation on preparations young people's engagement and participation for Christmas with a tour of the Pugin-designed Cathedral led by the Dean.

Formal meeting followed at College Street Centre. This meeting included a presentation from the City Council's International Dimension Manager who spoke about how international partnerships for schools contributed to the Community Cohesion agenda.

19 September 2012 Meeting at Oak Field Special School, focussed on RE curriculum in the Primary and Special School sectors. Asima Qureshi, Deputy Head from Dunkirk Primary, who outlined the ways in which the agreed syllabus was implemented in her school and Ryan Ward, Head of Humanities at Oak Field Special school who introduced SACRE to the notion of P levels and the ways in which the agreed syllabus was integrated into the Special school curriculum at Primary and Secondary levels. There followed a valuable discussion on the ways in which schools deal with death, led by the Head of Oak Field Special School, David Stewart.
